- Feel the energy boost and know that FRS Plus is working in you.
- Free Radical Scavenger is a term used by scientists and nutritionists to describe a substance that scavenges (neutralizes) damaging free radicals in the body.
- Daily Cell Protection and Healthy Energy.
- Its energy-producing effects help fight fatigue, boost performance, and support daily wellness and vitality.
- Free radical scavengers are powerful antioxidants that neutralize free radicals to help prevent damage to our cells.
- Daily intake of FRS Plus is designed to help you maintain a powerful antioxidant defense system and is beneficial for everyone.
- Consumers of FRS Plus often experience an increase in energy and alertness within 30 minutes of ingestion.
- FRS Plus has powerful applications not only for high performance endurance athletes, but for any active person to help alleviate free radical damage caused by exercise.
- . . . a dramatic improvement in time trial performance as a result of daily intake of FRS Plus over a 6-week period.
- Daily use of FRS Plus yielded a 3.1% improvement.
- People experiencing lack of energy and fatigue may find FRS Plus a valuable energy boosting supplement.
- Initially, FRS gave me a 'pick-me-up' during the day that felt good. Now, after drinking FRS daily for a few months, I believe that it has provided real metabolic benefits. I feel more energetic and sharp than I have in a long time.
- In the daily fight against damage from free radicals, FRS Plus provides powerful support for everyday wellness and vitality.
- It keeps me alert, focused, and sharp all day long, and often into the evening; I haven't felt better or been more productive in years.
- A perfect workout aid and energy booster.
- Caffeine is used as a metabolic enhancer to help the body absorb the other key nutrients in the FRS formula.
