NEW DIETARY INGREDIENT NOTIFICATION SUMMARY PAGE

The Summary Page (Figure 5) displays an overview of the sections that must be completed for the New Dietary Ingredient Notification. A unique tracking number is created for each NDI created. The Tracking Number is the unique identifier for the submission within the COSM. Please note that it is not the NDIN report number. Click on each “Update” button to complete the information relevant to the section. As each section is completed, COSM will return you to the Summary Page to complete the next section.

Contact Information

This section asks you to identify:

- The Submitter of the notification
The submitter of the notification is the person or firm that submits the online notification to FDA. The submitter could be a manufacturer or distributor of dietary ingredients or dietary supplements or it could be a person or entity that submits the notification on behalf of a manufacturer or distributor, such as a consultant, law firm or other agent of the manufacturer or distributor. Update
- The Owner of the notification
The owner of the notification is the manufacturer or distributor by or on behalf of which the notification is being submitted. In some cases the owner of the notification and submitter of the notification will be the same but in others, such as when manufacturers and distributors hire an outside entity (attorney or consultant) to submit the notification on their behalf, the notification owner and submitter will be different.
- Contacts (primary and additional)

By listing someone as a contact in this section, you authorize FDA to contact him or her with questions about the notification, updates on the status of the notification and any other matters related to the notification. You must designate at least one person as the primary contact. We encourage you to designate additional contacts in case the primary contact is not available, but that is optional.

General Administrative Information

This section asks for general administrative information pertaining to the New Dietary Ingredient Notification. This is high-level information that gives us insight as to the nature and content of the notification itself. Update

Description of New Dietary Ingredient and Dietary Supplement

This section describes the new dietary ingredient and the dietary supplement containing the new dietary ingredient by obtaining answers to specific questions regarding:

- The type and name of the ingredient.
- The serving form, serving size and conditions of use for the supplement.
- A narrative describing the ingredients in the NDI.
- Other information pertinent to the NDI.

Update

Safety Information Attachment

In this section, you will download and fill in a safety information template describing the scientific information on which you base your conclusion that the dietary supplement(s) containing the NDI will reasonably be expected to be safe. Safety information means, among other things, information showing that the NDI is identical or related to substances documented as having a history of use as food and/or to test articles used in safety studies. In addition, safety information means documentation of history of use as food, and the results of safety studies, including genetic toxicology studies, pharmacokinetic studies, animal toxicology studies and human clinical studies. The template asks for details about the identity of the NDI, verification of that identity, information about history of use as food, and/or other evidence relevant to the safety of the NDI and the dietary supplement. The template also asks for reprints or photo static copies of all cited studies. After filling in the template, you will attach the completed safety information template file and files containing the scientific publications cited in your notification. Update

Additional Attachments

Additional attachments to the NDI notification are explained in this Section. Uploading labeling for the dietary supplement containing the NDI will help FDA evaluate what conditions of use are being recommended or suggested. If you are the manufacturer or distributor of the NDI and do not have access to labeling for the dietary supplement(s) in which the NDI will be used, please upload the labeling of the bulk NDI. SAFETY INFORMATION ATTACHMENT

The Safety Information Attachment section allows the user to download a template for the Safety Attachment. The download is not mandatory if the user has downloaded it previously. Uploading a completed Safety Attachment is mandatory, however. This section only allows one document to be uploaded.

The screenshot shows a web interface for the 'New Dietary Ingredient (NDI) Notification' section. At the top, it displays the title and a tracking number: 'Tracking Number: OLS_NDI_243'. Below this is a heading 'Safety Information Attachment' with a question mark icon. A detailed paragraph explains that users will download and fill a safety information template describing scientific information on which they base their conclusion that the dietary supplement(s) containing the NDI will reasonably be expected to be safe. It lists various types of studies and information required, such as history of use, genetic toxicology, pharmacokinetic, animal toxicology, and human clinical studies. A bolded warning states: 'Please ensure that you do not upload a password protected document. Maximum allowed file size is 10MB. Accepted file type is .pdf. Only 1 file is allowed to be uploaded in this section.' Below the warning, there is a link 'Click here to download the Safety Information template file.' A file upload area contains a button that says '+ Drag and Drop or Select File'. At the bottom, there are two buttons: 'Save and Continue' and 'Cancel'. A mouse cursor is hovering over the 'Save and Continue' button.

Step-1: To download the template file for entering your safety information, click on the blue link in the sentence “Click here to download the Safety information template file.”

Step-3: Save the completed Safety Narrative to your computer in one of the supported file formats. For security reasons, please save or convert all files to .pdf format prior to uploading. Please remove any protections or restrictions from these documents.

Step-4: You may find it advantageous to combine the completed Safety Narrative with the files containing referenced documents into one large document and upload the one file in this section.

Should you choose to create and attach one large file here, which includes the Safety Narrative and associated reference documents, the next section, “Additional Attachments”, may be skipped.

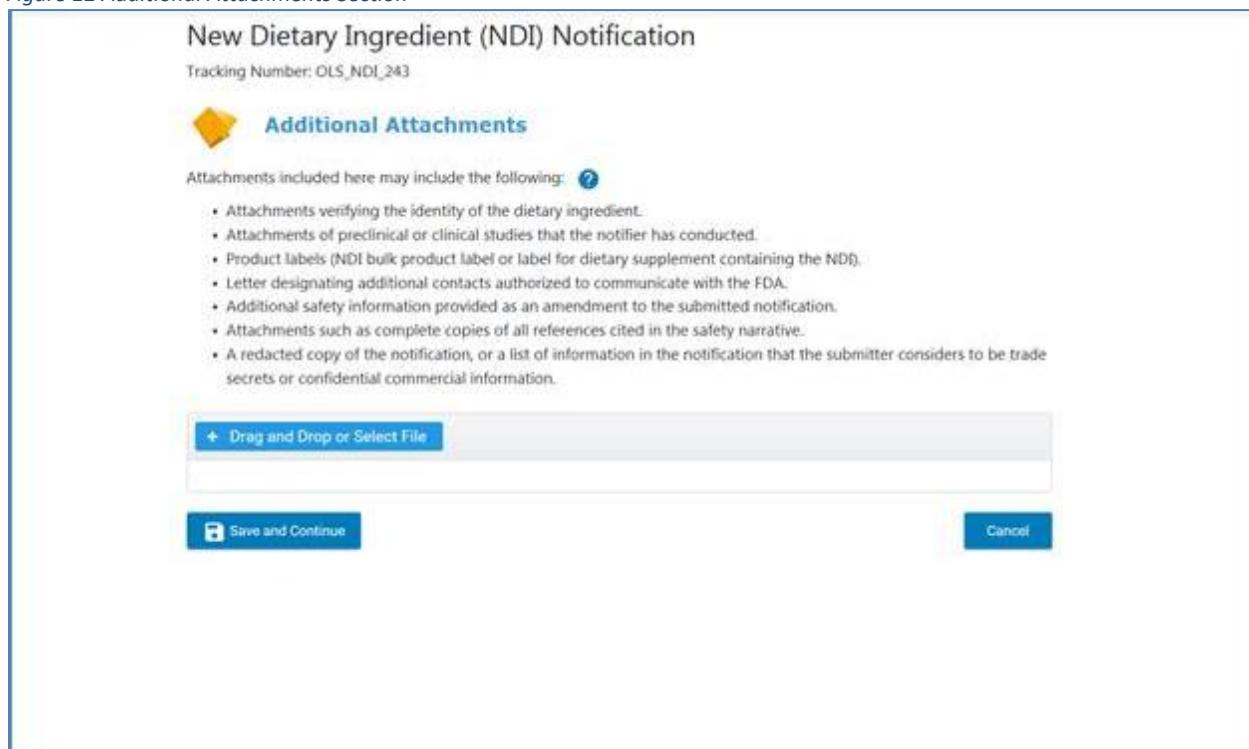

Note: Please ensure that uploaded documents are not password protected. The maximum allowed file size is 10MB. The only accepted file type is .pdf. Only 1 file may be uploaded in this section.

Additional attachments to the NDI are explained in the Safety Information Attachment section. Uploading labeling for the dietary supplement containing the NDI will help FDA evaluate what conditions of use are being recommended or suggested.

If the user is the distributor or manufacturer of the NDI and does not have access to labeling for the dietary supplement(s) in which the NDI will be used, the user is advised to upload the labeling of the bulk NDI.

Clearly identify the attachments with appropriate descriptive file names (for example, first author, year and title, or citation number), making sure a reviewer can connect a citation with the reference document. Number the pages in each attachment consecutively.

Once the user has completed this section they can click the “Save and Continue” button to return to the Summary page.
