

Curriculum Vitae

David E. Mitchell

Cancer Patient November 2010-present

Diagnosed with multiple myeloma and in continuous treatment

President and Founder, Patients for Affordable Drugs November 2016-present

Patient advocate working to ensure balance between innovation and new drug development and prices that are affordable to patients, families and the American health care system

Senior Partner, GMMB March 1986-December 2016

Founding partner and senior manager of strategic communications firm specializing in issues, policy and politics. Professional specialty in health care and public health on issues including disease prevention and health promotion, tobacco control, traffic safety, childhood injury prevention, childhood immunizations, nutrition

Director, Public Relations and Publications, United Automobile Workers Union, UAW June 1982-November 1985

Responsible for managing internal and external communications in support of collective bargaining, organizing, policy and grassroots activities

International Representative, Department of Public Relations and Publications, UAW September 1978-June 1982

Broadcast media specialist supporting organization work across collective bargaining, organizing, policy and grassroots activities

Michigan State University, Master's Program in Labor and Industrial Relations, MLIR Degree June 1977-June 1978

Michigan State University, Bachelor of Science, Multi-disciplinary Social Science, BS Degree March 1976-June 1977

Radio Announcer and Broadcast Journalist May 1971-December 1976

Wayne State University, Journalism studies September 1968-May 1971

April 6, 2020

