On June 22, 2009, the President signed into law the Family Smoking Prevention and Tobacco Control Act (the Tobacco Control Act) (Public Law 111-31). The Tobacco Control Act granted FDA important new authority to regulate the manufacture, marketing, and distribution of tobacco products to protect the public health generally and to reduce tobacco use by minors. To carry out this responsibility, FDA established the Center for Tobacco Products (CTP).

Major Duties:

This position will serve as a Supervisory Consumer Safety Officer in a Branch within the Office of Compliance and Enforcement (OCE), Regulatory Review Branch A, Division of Enforcement and Manufacturing (DEM). The duties for this detail include:

- Supervise a team involved in compliance and regulatory matters in support of CTP's mission-critical special initiatives and/or recurring tasks.
- Assign and review work on a regular and recurring basis and assure that requirements for production and accuracy are met. Responsible for ensuring consistent application of policies and procedures across the team for assigned processes/areas of expertise.
- Participate in the decision-making process, discussions and decisions concerning Office and Center plans and compliance programs and activities. Advise senior level management on the status of program activities, including problems encountered and proposed solutions to program challenges.
- Provide advice, counsel, and instruction on work matters.
- Play a lead role in the preparation of analyses of the impact of proposed changes to FDA laws and regulations, which affect the compliance functions, program segment(s), and activities of CTP.

Qualifying specialized experience includes:

- Ability to advise others in the application of Agency rules, regulations, and procedures.
- Skill in identifying problems, gathering information, drawing conclusions, recommending solutions, preparing reports, negotiating acceptance, and implementing recommendations.
- Solid foundation in regulatory review work.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills.

This series has an Individual Occupational Requirement (IOR)/positive education requirement. See link below for the requirements.
