Introduction

The Food and Drug Administration (FDA or Agency) is the regulatory, scientific, public health and consumer protection agency responsible for ensuring all human and animal drugs, medical devices, cosmetics, foods, food additives, drugs and medicated feeds for food producing animals, tobacco and radiation emitting devices safe, and effective.

The mission of the Center for Veterinary Medicine (CVM) is to protect and promote human and animal health from a One Health perspective. CVM ensures the safety of the American food supply, the safety of animal food and devices, and the safety and effectiveness of animal drugs. Specifically, CVM evaluates new animal drug applications for safety and effectiveness and manufacturing quality; monitors animal drugs, animal foods, and animal devices for safety and takes appropriate action to mitigate unsafe or violative products on the market; evaluates animal food additives for safety and utility; conducts applied research to further scientific understanding and support data-based decision making to protect human and animal health; works to prevent and respond to human and animal health emergencies; and develops and implements policies to combat antimicrobial resistance. As a high-performance organization within the FDA, CVM strives for excellence, innovation, and leadership across all operations, occupations, and grade levels.
The Office of Management’s (OM) primary responsibility is to provide leadership and direction for CVM’s management and administrative functions to include aligned interactions with Center, Agency, Department, and other Federal agencies to assure compliance with statutes, executive orders, and administrative directives. Additionally, it performs management and program analyses, program assessments, and special studies of key issues relative to policy review and oversight. This position serves as a Program Analyst in OM’s Human Capital Management Staff (HCMS). The incumbent serves as a technical expert for recruitment and staffing issues.

Duties/Responsibilities
As the Recruitment Team Lead in CVM/OM, you will:

Perform day-to-day recruitment activities to ensure that CVM can meet annual hiring goals. Provides guidance to Hiring Managers on recruitment, classification, outreach, and other recruitment-related issues, utilizing expert knowledge of policy, guidance, and best practices.

Serve as the initial point of contact for recruitment cases and questions within the CVM recruitment team. Meet weekly with the team to ensure progress and consistency, address questions, and monitor special projects. Mentor and coach team members in technical skills as they develop.

Oversees outreach activities to ensure that positions reach a diverse, well-qualified audience, and can be filled quickly.

Independently serve as CVM’s expert in providing technical advice, counsel, and assistance to the CVM Recruitment Team, HCMS Director, OM Director/Executive Officer, management officers (MOs), and CVM supervisors on CVM’s Recruitment programs, policy, guidance, and/or initiatives.

Work closely with and provide input to the CVM Recruitment Team and HCMS Director to ensure that programs under the incumbent’s purview are effective in supporting the Center’s scientific and regulatory mission. Develop and initiate recruitment strategic planning activities (mid-to-long range) as they relate to the mission and vision of CVM. Identify anomalies or issues of concern and ensures the HCMS Director, OM Director/Executive Officer are aware of particularly controversial issues or problems. Develop implementation plans and conducts follow-up activities as appropriate to ensure that program commitments are fulfilled, and deadlines are met.

Ensure that recruitment procedures are used consistently within the team, developing and updating SOPs, guides, checklists, and SharePoint sites as needed.

Serves as the liaison with CVM employees, management officers (MOs), supervisors, senior-level executives, the Agency’s Office of Talent Solutions (OTS), and other FDA centers/offices to ensure CVM recruitment priorities are recognized and addressed and to identify policies and practices needed to enhance the quality of OM HCMS services.

Represents the Center in Agency, Departmental, and Interdepartmental organizational meetings and committees with full knowledge of policy and Center/Agency program priorities.

Develops correspondence, communications, reports, and/or briefings on various recruitment matters for technical reference.

Identifies training opportunities for hiring managers and the recruitment team. Ensures training needs are met.

Equal Employment Opportunity

Equal Employment Opportunity Policy

The United States Government does not discriminate in employment on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy and gender identity), national origin, political affiliation, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, genetic information, age, membership in an employee organization, retaliation, parental status, military service, or other non-merit factor.

Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) for federal employees & job applicants

Reasonable Accommodation

Reasonable Accommodation Policy

Federal agencies must provide reasonable accommodation to applicants with disabilities where appropriate. Applicants requiring reasonable accommodation for any part of the application process should follow the instructions in the job opportunity announcement. For any part of the remaining hiring process, applicants should contact the hiring agency directly. Determinations on requests for reasonable accommodation will be made on a case-by-case basis. A reasonable accommodation is any change to a job, the work environment, or the way things are usually done that enables an individual with a disability to apply for a job, perform job duties or receive equal access to job benefits. Under the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, federal agencies must provide reasonable accommodations when: An applicant with a disability needs an accommodation to have an equal opportunity to apply for a job. An employee with a disability needs an accommodation to perform the essential job duties or to gain access to the workplace. An employee with a disability needs an accommodation to receive equal access to benefits, such as details, training, and office-sponsored events. You can request a reasonable accommodation at any time during the application or hiring process or while on the job. Requests are considered on a case-by-case basis. Learn more about disability employment and reasonable accommodations or how to contact an agency.

E-Verify

The Food and Drug Administration participates in the USCIS Electronic Employment Eligibility Verification Program (E-Verify). E-Verify helps employers determine employment eligibility of new hires and the validity of their Social Security numbers.
