Introduction

The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) is the regulatory, scientific, public health and consumer protection agency responsible for ensuring all human and animal drugs, medical devices, cosmetics, foods, food additives, drugs and medicated feeds for food producing animals, tobacco and radiation emitting devices safe, and effective.

The mission of the Center for Drug Evaluation and Research (CDER) is to perform an essential public health task by making sure that safe and effective drugs are available to improve the health of people in the United States. CDER regulates over-the-counter and prescription drugs, including biological therapeutics and generic drugs.

The mission of the Office of Compliance (OC) is to shield patients from poor quality, unsafe and ineffective drugs through proactive compliance strategies and risk-based enforcement actions. CDER OC strives to be a model of efficiency, innovation, and operational excellence. Guided by law and science, the Office makes strategic and risk-based decisions, communicates clearly with all stakeholders, fosters global collaboration, promotes voluntary compliance, and takes decisive action. OC is responsible for promoting and protecting the public health through strategies and actions that minimize consumer exposure to unsafe, ineffective, and poor-quality drugs.

The Office of Program and Regulatory Operations (OPRO) leads and manages operational infrastructure support for the Office of Compliance relating to project management, executive communications, and workforce development.

The Deputy Office Director position is located within OPRO's Immediate Office.

Duties/Responsibilities

As the Deputy Office Director for the Office of Program and Regulatory Operations (OPRO), the incumbent serves as the principal advisor to the Office Director and supports in the oversight and management of the operational infrastructure relating to project management, process management and regulatory strategy for compliance and enforcement activities and associated drug safety monitoring conducted by the CDER OC. The Deputy Office Director is responsible for the major duties as follows:

- Contributes to the development of the short/long term goals, policy, guidance, and innovative compliance strategies; and directs the implementation of efforts to achieve strategic objectives and goals.
- Works with the OPRO Office Director and senior management to coordinate high-level cross cutting project, portfolio project management and program management activities across the Office of Compliance.
- Represents the Office Director in meetings with Senior Agency officials on compliance matters. Works with external and internal stakeholders, including top level officials from regulated firms and FDA leaders to promote compliance.
- Works with the Office Director to coordinate operational issues with Office of Compliance's component offices, as well as other offices within and external to CDER, such as CDER's Office of Pharmaceutical Quality and FDA's Office of Regulatory Affairs.
- Serves as the focal point of contact for the quality management systems and initiatives within the office, including establishment of roles and responsibilities, process mapping and streamlining, development of operational performance metrics, and program evaluation.

Supervisory Responsibilities: Assists in managing an Office. Provides leadership and management oversight to subordinate employees. Provides occupational specific technical and administrative direction and supervision 25 percent or more of the time to subordinate supervisors and staff performing the work and functions of the organizational unit. Obtains resources and identifies strategic objectives for the organization.

Education Transcripts

SUBMITTING YOUR TRANSCRIPTS: Positions which are scientific or technical in nature often have very specific educational requirements. A transcript is required to verify educational achievement. Pay careful attention to the Qualifications and Education sections to identify vacancies where a transcript is required. Even if you hold a similar position or are a current FDA employee, you are not exempt from transcript requirements.

FOREIGN EDUCATION: If you are using education completed in foreign colleges or universities to meet the qualification requirements, you must show that the education credentials have been evaluated by a private organization that specializes in interpretation of foreign education programs and such education has been deemed equivalent to that gained in an accredited U.S. education program; or full credit has been given for the courses at a U.S. accredited college or university. For more information about this requirement, please visit the U.S. Department of Education website for Foreign Education Evaluation.

Security Clearance Requirements

Background Investigation/Security Clearance Requirements: Non-Sensitive/High-Risk

If not previously completed, a background security investigation will be required for all appointees. Appointment will be subject to the applicant's successful completion of a background security investigation and favorable adjudication. Failure to successfully meet these requirements may be grounds for appropriate personnel action. In addition, if hired, a background security investigation or supplemental investigation may be required later.

Applicants are also advised that all information concerning qualification is subject to investigation. False representation may be grounds for non-selection and/or appropriate disciplinary action.

Vaccination Requirements

To ensure compliance with an applicable preliminary nationwide injunction, which may be supplemented, modified, or vacated, depending on the course of ongoing litigation, the Federal Government will take no action to implement or enforce the COVID-19 vaccination requirement pursuant to Executive Order 14043 on Requiring Coronavirus Disease 2019 Vaccination for Federal Employees. Therefore, to the extent a Federal job announcement includes the requirement that applicants must be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 pursuant to Executive Order 14043, that requirement does not currently apply. Federal agencies may request information regarding the vaccination status of selected applicants for the purposes of implementing other workplace safety protocols, such as protocols related to masking, physical distancing, testing, travel, and quarantine.

Ethics Clearance Requirements

This position may require financial disclosure reporting and will be subject to FDA's prohibited financial interest regulation. If you are hired, you may be required to divest of certain financial interests. You are advised to seek additional information on this requirement from the hiring official before accepting any job offers. For more information, please visit the FDA Ethics web page: <https://www.fda.gov/about-fda/jobs-and-training-fda/ethics>.

Equal Employment Opportunity

Equal Employment Opportunity Policy

The United States Government does not discriminate in employment on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy and gender identity), national origin, political affiliation, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, genetic information, age, membership in an employee organization, retaliation, parental status, military service, or other non-merit factor.

Reasonable Accommodation

Reasonable Accommodation Policy

Federal agencies must provide reasonable accommodation to applicants with disabilities where appropriate. Applicants requiring reasonable accommodation for any part of the application process should follow the instructions in the job opportunity announcement. For any part of the remaining hiring process, applicants should contact the hiring agency directly. Determinations on requests for reasonable accommodation will be made on a case-by-case basis. A reasonable accommodation is any change to a job, the work environment, or the way things are usually done that enables an individual with a disability to apply for a job, perform job duties or receive equal access to job benefits.

Under the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, federal agencies must provide reasonable accommodations when: An applicant with a disability needs an accommodation to have an equal opportunity to apply for a job. An employee with a disability needs an accommodation to perform the essential job duties or to gain access to the workplace. An employee with a disability needs an accommodation to receive equal access to benefits, such as details, training, and office-sponsored events. You can request a reasonable accommodation at any time during the application or hiring process or while on the job. Requests are considered on a case-by-case basis. Learn more about disability employment and reasonable accommodations or how to contact an agency.

E-Verify

The Food and Drug Administration participates in the USCIS Electronic Employment Eligibility Verification Program (E-Verify). E-Verify helps employers determine employment eligibility of new hires and the validity of their Social Security numbers.
