Introduction

The Office of Policy, Legislation and International Affairs (OPLIA), Office of Global Policy and Strategy (OGPS) plans, directs, manages, and coordinates a comprehensive international program for the Food and Drug Administration (FDA). This position is located within OGPS's foreign post and is a field resource in conducting foreign inspection/investigations of the commodities regulated by the FDA. The incumbent serves as an expert in the Foreign Field

Office for a specialty area, such as: Human and Veterinary Drugs, Medical Devices, Human and Animal Food, and Bioresearch Monitoring.

Duties/Responsibilities

- Plans, coordinates, and conducts inspections and investigations with numerous complications, where timeliness, skill, and tact are critical.
- Makes recommendations on new inspectional approaches and methodologies; the extent and seriousness of violations; and the acceptability of voluntary corrective actions.
- Provides information and guidance to foreign government counterparts or entities, U.S. Federal Agencies, private industry, and universities on unique and complex regulatory issues.
- Inspects new or unusual commodities and manufacturing practices, and devises needed innovations, approaches, methodologies, and modifications.
- Prepares correspondence, technical reports, estimates, fact sheets, status reports, and schedules to complete project assignments.

Supervisory Responsibilities: None

Conditions of Employment

- U.S. Citizenship requirement or proof of being a U.S. National must be met by closing date.
- Employment is subject to the successful completion of a background investigation, verification of qualifications, completion of onboarding forms, submission of required documents, and any other job-related requirement before or after appointment.
- Applicants must meet all qualification requirements by the closing date of this announcement.
- Direct Deposit: You will be required to have all federal salary payments electronically deposited into a bank account with a financial institution of your choice.
- FDA participates in e-Verify: All new hires must complete the I-9 form; this information will be processed through e-Verify to determine your employment eligibility. If a discrepancy arises, you must take affirmative steps to resolve the matter.
- Males born after December 31, 1959 must be registered with the Selective Service.
- One year probationary period may be required.
- Financial Disclosure may be required.
- Ethics Clearance may be required.
- Background Investigation/Security Clearance is required. All employees must pass a security investigation. Failing to pass the background check may be grounds for removal or legal action. If hired, you may be subject to additional investigations at a later time. Top Secret Security Clearance is required for the Beijing China location and a Secret Security Clearance is required for the New Delhi, India location.
- This position is temporary and does not provide permanent placement upon completion or termination of the overseas assignment. Conditions may change if selectee is current FDA employee.

- Temporary/term appointments may begin stateside upon completion of security, medical and applicable trainings. Time served stateside will count towards overall appointment if selected for temporary promotion.
- Selectees for temporary/term assignments that begin stateside will remain stateside until all required clearances and trainings are completed before being deployed to an overseas location.
- A Statement of Understanding is required to be signed by the selected candidate indicating they understand the terms and conditions of this temporary appointment.

NOTE: For FDA employees under CURES appointment, the Center/Office has the responsibility of determining a “comparable” position for the employee upon return, if the position of record is backfilled during deployment. If there is no comparable CURES position, it is likely that the employee will not be able to return to a CURES appointment and will be returned under Title 5 at the appropriate grade, step and pay, if there is a comparable position under Title 5. "This position will be located New Delhi, India and Beijing, China. The temporary assignments not-to-exceed 2 or 3 years, but may be extended up to a total of 6 years.

Reasonable Accommodation

Reasonable Accommodation Policy

Federal agencies must provide reasonable accommodation to applicants with disabilities where appropriate. Applicants requiring reasonable accommodation for any part of the application process should follow the instructions in the job opportunity announcement. For any part of the remaining hiring process, applicants should contact the hiring agency directly.

Determinations on requests for reasonable accommodation will be made on a case-by-case basis. A reasonable accommodation is any change to a job, the work environment, or the way things are usually done that enables an individual with a disability to apply for a job, perform job duties or receive equal access to job benefits. Under the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, federal agencies must provide reasonable accommodations when: An applicant with a disability needs an accommodation to have an equal opportunity to apply for a job. An employee with a disability needs an accommodation to perform the essential job duties or to gain access to the workplace. An employee with a disability needs an accommodation to receive equal access to benefits, such as details, training, and office-sponsored events. You can request a reasonable accommodation at any time during the application or hiring process or while on the job. Requests are considered on a case-by-case basis. Learn more about disability employment and reasonable accommodations or how to contact an agency.

E-Verify

The Food and Drug Administration participates in the USCIS Electronic Employment Eligibility Verification Program (E-Verify). E-Verify helps employers determine employment eligibility of new hires and the validity of their Social Security numbers.
