

FDA Staff Manual Guides, Volume I – Organizations and Functions

Department of Health and Human Services

Food and Drug Administration

Human Foods Program

Office of Food Chemical Safety, Dietary Supplements, and Innovation

Office of Post-Market Assessment

Division of Additives and Ingredients

Effective Date: May 13, 2024

1. Division of Additives and Ingredients (DCRKBB).

- A. Manage and conduct post-market safety assessments of all food chemicals and dietary supplement ingredients.
- B. Manage and conduct post-market safety assessments for all abandonment and revocation color additive petitions, food additive petitions, and citizen petitions.
- C. Develop and apply the suite of tools to perform systematic post-market review that includes in silico and new approach methods suitable for supporting post-market food chemical safety assessment activities.
- D. Support the use of predictive tools for supporting pre- and post-market food chemical safety assessment; and supporting the data analytics needs of the Office of Food Chemical Safety, Dietary Supplements, and Innovation.
- E. Develops and directs, as necessary, policies, guidance, compliance efforts, obtains necessary information and data, and takes appropriate regulatory action based on post-market assessment to implement relevant provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act specific to chemicals in food and dietary supplements.

2. Hazard Assessment and Analytics Branch (DCRKBB1).

- A. Develops and applies the suite of tools to perform systematic post-market review that includes in silico and new approach methods suitable for supporting post-market food chemical safety assessment activities.

- B. Supports the use of predictive tools for supporting pre- and post-market food chemical safety assessment; and supporting the data analytics needs of the Office of Food Chemical Safety, Dietary Supplements, and Innovation.

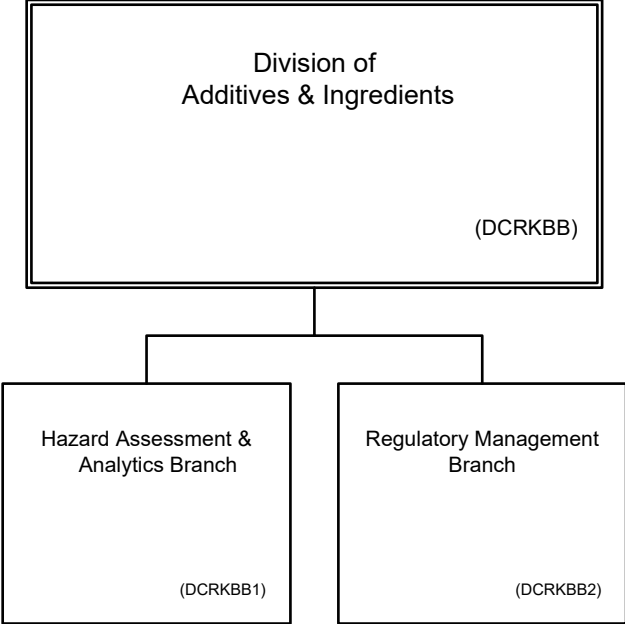

3. Regulatory Management Branch (DCRKBB2).

- A. Manages and conduct post-market safety assessments of all food chemicals and dietary supplement ingredients.
- B. Manages and conduct post-market safety assessments for all abandonment and revocation color additive petitions, food additive petitions, and citizen petitions.
- C. Develops and directs, as necessary, policies, guidance, compliance efforts, obtains necessary information and data, and takes appropriate regulatory action based on post-market assessment to implement relevant provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act specific to chemicals in food and dietary supplements.

4. Authority and Effective Date.

The functional statements for the Division of Additives and Ingredients were approved by the Secretary of Health and Human Services on March 5, 2024, and effective on May 13, 2024.

Department of Health and Human Services
Food and Drug Administration
Human Foods Program
Office of Food Chemical Safety, Dietary Supplements, and Innovation
Office of Post-Market Assessment
Division of Additives and Ingredients

Staff Manual Guide 1232A.222

Organizations and Functions

Effective Date: May 13, 2024

The following is the Department of Health and Human Services, Food and Drug Administration, Human Foods Program, Office of Food Chemical Safety, Dietary Supplements, and Innovation, Office of Post-Market Assessment, Division of Additives and Ingredients organization structure depicting all the organizational structures reporting to the Director:

Hazard Assessment and Analytics Branch (DCRKBB1)

Regulatory Management Branch (DCRKBB2)