

FDA Staff Manual Guides, Volume I – Organizations and Functions

Department of Health and Human Services

Food and Drug Administration

Center for Tobacco Products

Office of Science

Division of Non-Clinical Science

Effective Date: December 14, 2018

1. Division of Non-Clinical Science (DCFDF).

- A. Provides scientific expertise related to regulated tobacco products toxicity, carcinogenicity, and environmental impact.
- B. Develops and implements policies and procedures governing toxicological and environmental science aspects of premarket review of reports of substantially equivalent (SE) tobacco products, exemptions from SE, applications for new tobacco products, and modified risk tobacco products and product standards developed to reduce the toxicity of tobacco products.

2. Authority and Effective Date.

The functional statements for the Division of Non-Clinical Science were approved by the Secretary of Health and Human Services and effective on December 14, 2018.

Department of Health and Human Services
Food and Drug Administration
Center for Tobacco Products
Office of Science
Division of Non-Clinical Science

Division of
Non-Clinical Science

(DCFDF)

Staff Manual Guide 1355.7
Organizations and Functions
Effective Date: December 14, 2018

The following is the Department of Health and Human Services, Food and Drug Administration, Center for Tobacco Products, Office of Science, Division of Non-Clinical Science organization structure depicting all the organizational structures reporting to the Division Director:

Division of Non-Clinical Science (DCFDF)