Victor Yung-Tao Wu, M.D., M.P.H.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Chief Medical Officer   Oct 2016 – Present
TN Division of TennCare. Nashville, TN
- Provide policy input and medical leadership as member of senior executive team for TennCare, TN's state Medicaid program providing care to 1.4M members with approximately $11B annual budget
- Lead the TennCare medical office with direct responsibility over operations and policies of the medical, oral health, pharmacy, quality oversight, medical appeals, and provider services programs
- Represent TennCare during legislative process in regards to medical policies and legislative changes as well as coordinate with CMS regulations and policies
- Support state-wide payment reform design and implementation efforts and further health care delivery innovation to support of TennCare strategic mission to move toward value-based payment systems

Associate Professor and Attending Physician   Dec 2014 – present
Veteran's Affairs Hospital and Health System. Washington, DC
George Washington University School of Medicine. Washington, DC
- Deliver direct inpatient care as attending physician to hospitalized general medicine patients and managed multi-disciplinary team of clinicians and practitioners
- Responsible for medical education and teaching of medical students, interns, and residents

Vice President, Clinical Transformation   Sep 2014 – Oct 2016
Medical Director for Medicaid Strategies
Evolent Health. Arlington, VA
- Lead development and deployment of Medicaid population health strategy and scalable Medicaid model of care to improve patient quality and clinical outcomes while containing total medical expense
- Leads strategic partnerships with health systems to help transform their financial structure, physician alignment and governance, and clinical programs to support value-based care and population health
- Train and engage partner physicians and physician practices in adoption of value-based care, practice re-design, and population health initiatives

White House Fellow   Aug 2013 – Sep 2014
U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. Washington, DC
- Appointed by President Obama as one of 12 fellows in the nonpartisan White House Fellowship to serve in the Office of the HHS Secretary to work and advise on a broad range of medical and health issues across the department and intergovernmental agencies
- Designed health care quality pay for performance incentive program impacting 1200 Community Health Centers awarded through the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA)

Chief Medical Resident and Attending Physician, Grady Memorial Hospital
Emory University, Internal Medicine Residency Program. Atlanta, GA
- Oversaw and managed daily administration, scheduling, and work of residency training for 2nd largest Internal Medicine residency program in the country (174 resident physicians) across 4 hospital systems
- Coordinated and led teaching curriculum for all residents and medical students in internal medicine

J. Willis Hurst Internal Medicine Resident Physician
Emory University Department of Medicine. Atlanta, GA, Primary Care Track Focus
- 3 year residency training in Internal Medicine with focus in primary care to become board certified

ADDITIONAL WORK EXPERIENCE AND COLLABORATIONS

Nashville Health Care Council Fellow   Jan 2019 – May 2019
- Selected for 2019 class to participate in fellowship for senior health care executives from across the country to discuss and address the challenges facing the health care industry

Special Government Employee, FDA Non Prescription Drug Advisory Committee   Apr 2016 – May 2020
- Serves to evaluate and advise the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) commissioner on the safety and efficacy of over-the-counter human drug products as well as evaluate appropriateness of switching between prescription and non-prescription drug classes

Project Leader with Institute of Medicine (IOM) Health Literacy Roundtable   Dec 2012 – Jul 2015
- Led national team to develop health insurance literacy toolkit comprised of educational curriculum for consumers and providers to understand health insurance basics, access, and affordability incorporating health literacy principles

McKinsey & Company Summer Associate   May 2007 – Sep 2007
McKinsey & Company. Cleveland, OH
- Healthcare consultant for 1000 bed academic hospital with $6 billion annual budget in Midwest helping to improve and maximize operational efficiency and growth strategy

EDUCATION

EMORY UNIVERSITY, School of Medicine, Atlanta, GA
Doctorate of Medicine.

EMORY UNIVERSITY, Rollins School of Public Health, Atlanta, GA
Masters of Public Health. Concentration in Health Policy and Management.
MD/MPH Joint Scholarship Program.

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY, Nashville, TN
Bachelor's of Engineering in Biomedical Engineering, Summa Cum Laude.
Chancellor's Scholar, Tau Beta Pi National Engineering Honor Society

PUBLICATIONS

Getting Enrolled isn't Enough: The Importance of Teaching Consumers How To Use Health Insurance. Health Affairs Blog. October 2015.

Helping Consumers Understand and Use Health Insurance in 2014. Discussion Paper. Institute of Medicine. Washington, DC. http://www.iom.edu/LetsAsk4

Let's Ask 4: Questions for Consumers and Providers About Health Insurance. Discussion Paper. Institute of Medicine. Washington, DC. http://www.iom.edu/LetsAsk4 (lead author)

Does Patient Gender Impact Resident Physicians' Approach to the Cardiac Exam? Journal of General Internal Medicine. 2013 Apr; 28(4):561-6. (DOI: 10.1007/s11606-012-2256-5).

Neurologically Intact Survival Following Prolonged CPR for Pulseless Ventricular Tachycardia*. American Journal of Medicine.* March 2013, Vol 126 (3)e7-e9.

3 additional scientific publications & 7 presentations/invited speakerships at national conferences upon request

BOARD CERTIFICATIONS AND LICENSURES

American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) Certified Physician
Active 2018 Licensures:
> TN Board of Medical Examiners
> DEA Controlled Substance License