

Attention FDA

0621 '00 APR -6 P1:45

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

No, I should not be force - another right the government wants to take away from the people. Gao, let FDA pay for it.

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

The nearest doctor is 50 miles away. Every time I would turn around I would have to get somebody to drive me that 100 miles for repairs & I don't have it getting only $710⁰⁰ a month

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

No, No, No.

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

Yes, Yes, Yes.
