

Attention FDA

0649 '00 APR -6 P1:47

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

No, I should not be forced to have a test.
The FDA should have to pay for exam.

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

Some folks do not feel they should be forced to see a doctor or hearing specialist, especially if it is difficult to visit at their office.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

I should be able to decide on my own

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

yes, I have had several and no problems
