

Attention FDA

0608 '00 APR -6 P1:45

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

It should be up to the person if they don't want an exam as long as they pay for the service & is satisfied.

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

For the FDA to demand who you see and where you buy takes away the rights of an individual

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

It should be the right of each and every person to be able to buy a hearing aid from any place they want, as long as they pay for the service.

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

I should be able to buy my hearing aid through mail if I want to -
