

Attention FDA

0576 '00 APR -6 P1:43

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam? yes

It will be a cold day in Hell when they do pay.

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

Well there is lots of people who can't drive anymore its by law can't hear at all don't drive,

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

The F.D.A. Should not interfere on our Business Supreme court or not.

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

*of course. if we choose to do so let it be that way,
its our choice to purchase by mail,*
