

Attention FDA

0523 '00 APR -6 P1:40

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam? yes

No
The FDA does not help people at all, they are very bias and one-sided. I say Down with the FDA

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

Not only physically but without a car it's impossible.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment? no

I'm against the FDA.

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

If people don't have a health plan, they should be able to get what they can without paying too much
