

Attention FDA

0433 '00 APR -6 P1:35

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

*By no means
If they are so concerned let them
pay for the exam x*

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

I went to one hearing test. What I received was, rude, sarcastic treatment.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

a bsolutety not. They are meddling too much in peoples business.

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

By all means. Excel is one of the best hearing-aids on the market.
