

Attention FDA

0473 '00 APR -6 P1:38

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

NO

YES

UNLESS HEARING IS TOO SEVERE

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

APPOINTMENTS TO FIT BOTH PARTIES, CAUSES CONFLICTS,
OR WILL UNEXPECTED PROBLEMS TO MAKE OR FILL APPTS.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

NO

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

YES. I have tried, ON TRIAL, however my loss
FROM EXCESSIVE NOISE, PREMATURE EXHAUSTIONS NECESSITATE
AIDS NOT APPLICABLE FOR USE INTERCHANGEABLE FOR EACH
EAR. NOW THAT IM ALMOST DEAF, SPECIAL NEEDS ARE NECESSARY

Dear Sir:

When I applied for Govt aids, due to my severe loss, due to former job - the Milan Arsenal, caused by 115# steam under water pressure, which should have required ear plugs, 10 years earlier and/or the water explosions, when burning spray shells and/or Detonators.

It was determined that I was entitled to the best of aids.

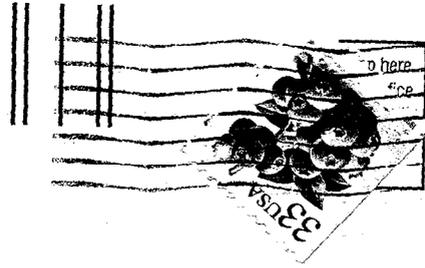

Batteries are free, however I will order the #13 for an aid, when the ones that uses #112

I have given users, order blank to use, when they have to pay Bell's
