Dear F.D.A.

I'm writing concerning Docket #94P-0036, the proposition that would require food manufacturers to list the trans-fat content in their products. I just want you to know that I strongly support this proposition. We as consumers have the right to know what ingredients go into the food we eat.

And for the record, I feel the same way about genetically altered foods. I don't want them in my body and I feel that it's your duty as the guardian of public health to make sure we're informed when genetically altered foods are encountered.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

94P-0036
