

Attention FDA

5602 '00 MAR 22 AIO:30

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

If I am going to be forced into this it is taking away my rights. This in return is in my opinion a type of Discrimination.

I have enjoyed for several years ordering my hearing aids and am completely satisfied.

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

I had an audiologist try to persuade me for 2 hrs. to buy a set of aids for $1500.00. This I do not like I got a pair by mail for about $600.00 and was well pleased with the results.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

No they should not. I am the one to decide for my self not the FDA

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

Definantly so. This is a choice and a privilege of my own
