

Attention FDA

5566 '00 MAR 22 AIO :27

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

No!

Whether they pay or not we should not be forced to have medical exams when we have been getting along fine for years & years!

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

Don't need a doctor to tell me I need a hearing aid. I have been getting along fine for over 40 years! No problems with aid.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

No, absolutely not

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

yes indeed! My best buy always!
