

Attention FDA

0444 '00 MAY -4 11:16

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam? no one should have to pay no

I know if my hearing is bad.

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ... have to beg my neighbors to take me and wait for me to see the doctor when I don't need to.

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment? no. I should have the right to spend my money if I want to and where I want to.

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose? yes
