

Attention FDA

It came to my attention that the FDA is being asked to take away my right to sign a medical waiver before purchasing a hearing aid. Instead I would be forced to have a medical exam or hearing test. Here's my views and/or experiences on several related questions?

1. Should I be forced to have a medical exam and/or hearing test before purchasing a hearing aid? If so, should the FDA pay for the exam?

Dis. dont know everything. Test dont show everything. but a Person knows what they feel, hear, see; people also know the Quality & they need up to amount of money they have. Im sick of being made to spend $ I dont have & run around 3 or 4 times & have ect. that I dont have. because this country has gone nuts with living otherwise

2. Some people are physically unable to drive to a doctor or hearing specialist, or have had bad experiences they don't want to repeat. For instance ...

Wheelchairs are hard to manage & rich 91yr old does not feel like going out & about. Christ America wake up we are not all well or young — we are all getting older & we should be working at making life easier not impossible difficult & even for a well person. ENT still

3. Should the FDA take away my Constitutional Right, affirmed by the Supreme Court, to decide for myself my medical exams and treatment?

NO. FDA ~~fighting~~ Should Back off & lighten up & where there

Tranquy, hearing aid due to illness & our inability to get it done there!!

Beat belts & only screw in the right position between the right 2 people & eat only the good foods & drink & eat BISO food even though BBQ food is as bad if not worse than

4. Should I be allowed to purchase hearing aids by mail as I choose?

YES! I have a brain & I should have the free will & choice to go with it.

cigarettes, but it doesnt matter to be politically correct dont smoke — dont dont & do do — dont plus to much.

Back off FDA.
