- FiberWise contains the #1 recommended bulk-fiber psyllium husk. Psyllium has been used for centuries for its regularity-promoting benefits.
- FiberWise also contains aloe vera and garlic extracts to help relieve occasional constipation, as well as peppermint and ginger, which are known to help soothe the gastrointestinal tract.
- Together, these ingredients work to keep your body regular. But FiberWise goes beyond just helping relieve occasional constipation.
- FiberWise also contains a careful combination of vitamin complexes designed to enhance your health now and help keep you healthy. FiberWise also contains vitamins A, C, and E, grape seed, and green tea extracts to give you additional health benefits.
- You'll also get special prebiotics and probiotics in FiberWise. Prebiotics help nourish the 'good' bacteria in your intestines, aiding in digestion and long term health. Probiotics maintain balance in your intestine, promoting immunity and the ability of your body to use nutrients. When combined with a healthy diet, these two ingredients work well together to help promote digestive tract health.
- While you're keeping your digestive system healthy and regular, you'll be providing heart-healthy benefits as well.
