CHAPTER I--FOOD AND DRUG ADMINISTRATION, DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND SERVICES--CONTINUED

PART 169--FOOD DRESSINGS AND FLAVORINGS--Table of Contents

Subpart B--Requirements for Specific Standardized Food Dressing
Flavorings

Sec. 169.175 Vanilla extract.

(a) Vanilla extract is the solution in aqueous ethyl alcohol of the most important and odorous principles extractable from vanilla beans. In this extract the content of ethyl alcohol is not less than 35 percent volume and the content of vanilla constituent, as defined in Sec. 169.3(c), is not less than one unit per gallon. The vanilla constituent may be extracted directly from vanilla beans or it may be added in the form of concentrated vanilla extract or concentrated vanilla flavoring or vanilla flavoring concentrated to the semisolid form called vanilla oleo-resin. Vanilla extract may contain one or more of the following optional ingredients:

- (1) Glycerin.
- (2) Propylene glycol.
- (3) Sugar (including invert sugar).
- (4) Dextrose.
- (5) Corn sirup (including dried corn sirup).

(b) (1) The specified name of the food is ``Vanilla extract'' or ``Extract of vanilla''.

(2) When the vanilla extract is made in whole or in part by the use of vanilla oleoresin, concentrated vanilla extract, or concentrated vanilla flavoring, the label shall bear the statement ``Made from _____'' or ``Made in part from _____'', the blank being filled with the name or names ``vanilla oleoresin'', ``concentrated vanilla extract'', or ``concentrated vanilla flavoring''. as appropriate number (disregarding fractions) expressing the number of units c vanilla constituent per gallon of the article.

(3) Wherever the name of the food appears on the label so conspicuously as to be easily seen under customary conditions of purchase, the labeling required by paragraph (b)(2) of this sect shall immediately and conspicuously precede or follow such name, intervening written, printed, or graphic matter.

(c) Label declaration. Each of the ingredients used in the f shall be declared on the label as required by the applicable sec parts 101 and 130 of this chapter.
