

FDA's Risk Communication Advisory Committee Update

Malcolm J. Bertoni

Assistant Commissioner for Planning

August 16, 2011

Background & Context

- FDA's Risk Communication Advisory Committee (RCAC) Chartered Spring 2007
- First Meeting - February 2008
- Twelfth Meeting - August 2011
- Initial roster gave staggered terms, 1-4 years
- Many retiring members continue to serve as consultants on an as-needed basis
- Today is the final meeting of the founding members

Milestones

- Strategic Plan for Risk Communication
- Risk Communication Research Agenda
- Multiple investigative projects and modalities
- Communicating Risks and Benefits released
- RCAC is vibrant, effective, and continuing

Future RCAC

- Nomination package nearing final stages for new members
- Topics are lining up for coming meetings
- Continued consultation with RCAC and individual SGE consultants fully expected
- Continued implementation and refinement of SPRC and other internal RC as well

Retiring members:

- Christine M. Bruhn, PhD
- Jacob DeLaRosa, MD
- Sally Greenberg, JD
- Baruch Fischhoff, PhD, Chair

Thank you!