

NUMBER OF FEES PAID IN FY 2012

AGDUFA established three fee categories and set fee revenues for each category. Based on the statutory revenues and estimated numbers of fees that would be paid in each category, FDA published the FY 2012 fee rates for all categories in August 2011<sup>1</sup>. The fee categories under AGDUFA (with FY 2012 fee rates) are:

- 1) Abbreviated Applications for Generic New Animal Drugs ($124,900);
- 2) Generic New Animal Drug Product Fees ($6,200); and
- 3) Generic New Animal Drug Sponsor Fees which range from $27,175 to $54,350 depending on the level of sponsor fee.

Table 8 summarizes the number and type of fees actually received in FY 2012 for cohort year 2012 in comparison to what the FDA estimated it would receive in FY 2012 when AGDUFA fees for FY 2012 were established in August 2011.
